

DATE SET FOR PUBLIC HEARING ON BILLS AFFECTING ARLINGTON

At 10:30 a. m. on Wednesday, Jan. 31, before the Committee on Metropolitan Affairs, Room 207, at the State House, several bills affecting Arlington with regard to better transportation and traffic relief will be given a public hearing. Most of these bills were introduced by Representative Henry E. Keenan.

These bills call for the underground extension of the Harvard Square subway to Porter Square, and then overground to the vacant land, just off the Concord Turnpike, where a terminal will be built.

Another bill calls for the conveyance of this vacant land from the Metropolitan District Commission to the Metropolitan Transit Authority for the purpose of building the terminal.

The other bills call for an overpass, underpass or a traffic circle to be built at the junction of Massachusetts ave. and Alewife Brook parkway at the Arlington-Cambridge line, and for similar construction at the junction of Broadway and Alewife Brook Parkway at the Arlington-Somerville line.

There is also a bill calling for the building of an extension of Mystic Valley Parkway in Medford on the Medford side of the Mystic River to allow traffic coming down from Winchester or Woburn to stay on the Medford side of the Mystic River instead of coming back into Arlington. Another bill calls for the rerouting of Route 60 to Route 16 for pleasure vehicles.

It is hoped that many citizens of the Town of Arlington will attend these hearings.

—The Arlington Catholic Woman's Club will hold its next afternoon bridge and whist next Tuesday at 2 in American Legion Hall. The chairman is Mrs. Thomas Burns.

Hughes Drops Out of Public Works Contest

In a letter to the NEWS, Frank J. Hughes, plumbing and heating contractor, of 166 Franklin st., has announced the withdrawal of his candidacy for the Board of Public Works.

"At the time I took out my nomination papers for this important Board, I felt I would have the time to devote to the duties of the office. However, in the past week I have lost the services of two key men in my firm to the army and because of illness. I now feel I shall have to devote more time and energy to fill the void caused by this loss, and therefore would not have the necessary time due the Public Works," Hughes wrote.

R. C. Hadley Now With Hartwell Funeral Home

Robert C. Hadley of Barre, Vt., has joined Fred E. Sprague in operating the Hartwell Funeral Home.

He has been employed by the Hooker Funeral Home for past seven years, previously by F. J. Crosby Boston for six years.

Mr. and Mrs. Hadley have one daughter, Brenda, and are residing at 794 Massachusetts ave., in the apartment formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Leslie E. A. Smith.

Discuss Safety Education

Monday night the Arlington Heights Improvement Association conducted an open forum on the subject of Safety Education and Traffic Control. The Police Department was represented by Sgt. Philip Sweeney, traffic safety officer assigned to the meeting by Chief of Police Archie F. Bullock.

The Association voted to cooperate with the police department in attempting to educate its members as to the value of safety program instituted by the department. The organization also unanimously approved Representative Henry E. Keenan's bill on the subway extension and land holding as well as complete approval of the minor street repair bill.

OPENINGS IN EVENING SCHOOL

Anyone interested in attending a class in sewing should contact the School Superintendent's office at once. There are a number of openings in Beginner's and Children's Sewing. There are also a few openings in Tray Painting, Cookery and Draperies.

Civil Defense Plans, Taken Too Lightly, Says Rotary Speaker

Dr. Walter L. Cronin, head of Civilian Defense in Cambridge, in a talk to the Arlington Rotary Club last Wednesday, urged the public to take Civilian Defense preparations more seriously.

Dr. Cronin stated he did not think an atomic bomb would be wasted on Boston because jellied gasoline would be as effective and far less expensive to the enemy.

"Russia," he continued, "has between 750 and 1,000 snorkel type submarines. Some of these submarines are transports and large enough to launch a rocket attack which can reach 200 miles from the coastline with only a 5% error."

"Arlington," he said, "is considered expensive. Only areas which are necessary for the existence of all will be given any appreciable amount of money with perhaps some training for key men. Arlington, then, must supply all the manpower to help itself and most if not all of the money."

Cambridge, he added, must have 20,000 defense workers and he felt that the response from volunteers was disappointing. He urged every citizen to realize quickly that it was their personal life they were trying to save and that they should get busy now, if they wish protection for themselves.

Daniel McFadden, Arlington's Civil Defense director, thanked Dr. Cronin for the assistance and advice which he had given officials. Mr. McFadden will speak to the Rotary again in February on this subject.

Half the funds collected in Arlington remain in Arlington to help fellow citizens who have been afflicted with the dread disease. More volunteers are needed to make collections next Wednesday night. You may volunteer by calling Mrs. Raymond McKeever or Mrs. Marguerite Dormitzer.

'A' Bomb Pamphlets Still Available

The Arlington office of Civil Defense has mailed 11,000 pamphlets on "Protection Against the Atom Bomb" to Arlington families. The Arlington Gas Light Company offered the use of its mailing list and addressed the envelopes at no cost to the Town to facilitate the delivery of the pamphlets.

If you do not have a meter in your home, it is likely that you have not received a copy of the booklet. In that event, a telephone call to AR 5-3156, the office of Civil Defense will send you a booklet through the mail.

A delegation of Boy Scouts helped the Office of Civilian Defense in processing and mailing the pamphlets.

Under the leadership of Commissioner Horace Homer, with the assistance of Charles R. Armour and other Scout leaders, a "chain" was formed and some 11,000 pieces of material were handled. At peak, 200 were being processed every five minutes.

Scouts assisting in this valuable service to the community were: From Troop 6, Sandy Mark, Donald Harvey, Richard Buxton, Jeffrey Collier and Robert Hall; from Troop 5, Charles Eddy and Richard Martin; from Troop 7, Otis Keating and Dana Kuhn; from Troop 10, Edward Lillis, George and David Starkey; from Troop 13, Robert Armour and Richard Milano; from Troop 41, John Holt.

—Police Lt. Thomas F. Sullivan is reported on the way to recovery, at his home on Gray st., following a severe attack of pneumonia.

TURN ON YOUR PORCHLIGHT - FIGHT POLIO

Mother's March

Final plans for the "Mother's March on Polio" were announced yesterday by acting Chairman John Lamour, and Mrs. Mary Boyd, women's division chairman.

The hour has been set, it will be between 7 and 8 p.m. next Wednesday, Jan. 31. A sound truck will herald the Mother's March.

Acting chairman John Lamour urges everyone to turn on their porch light as evidence that they wish to contribute to the March of Dimes. If your porch light is out of order, place a candle, a lamp, or even a lighted flashlight in front of your home so that the volunteers will be sure to call.

Half the funds collected in Arlington remain in Arlington to help fellow citizens who have been afflicted with the dread disease. More volunteers are needed to make collections next Wednesday night. You may volunteer by calling Mrs. Raymond McKeever or Mrs. Marguerite Dormitzer.

Arlington Photographer Is Speaker In Taunton

Chester C. Burnham of 32 Draper ave., was guest speaker at the Taunton Camera Club Monday evening, Jan. 15.

He demonstrated a detailed process of home portraiture and gave a technical talk on the proper processing of amateur films in home darkrooms.

He made 19 shots of members and expects to show the results at a later meeting in the Taunton Y.M.C.A., using projection slides from these same negatives.

UNIVERSITY THEATRE

James Stewart and Barbara Hale are lucky giveaway winners in the hilarious comedy, "The Jackpot" opening Sunday at the University Theatre. Appearing as husband and wife, they experience many hilarious incidents coping with $24,000 worth of prizes ranging from a pony to a portable swimming pool.

Joseph Cotton and Valli, the stars of "The Third Man", have the stellar roles in an unusual type of dramatic romance, "Walk Softly, Stranger", the companion film.

On Wednesday, Review Day, the program includes "The Third Man", starring Joseph Cotton, Valli and Orson Welles and "Dream Girl" featuring Betty Hutton and Macdonald Carey.

"Dallas", the romantic adventure drama, starring Gary Cooper, Ruth Roman and Steve Cochran, opens Thursday.

Stoneham Sextet Tips Locals, 2-1

By JIM DOHERTY

An inspired Stoneham sextet scored the upset of the season at the Arena Saturday when it knocked Arlington out of first place in the G.B.I. Hockey League by edging the locals, 2 to 1.

Although beaten by a tail-end club, Arlington had a decided edge over Stoneham for most of the game but couldn't get past goalie D'Entremont who was magnificent in the Stoneham nets.

Ronnie Warrnamaker was the big gun for Stoneham scoring one goal and receiving an assist on the other while Bill Vassil scored the lone Arlington goal.

The first two periods were scoreless with D'Entremont turning aside a rain of shots from the Spy Ponders.

Arlington pressed hard in the third period but could only crack what amounted to be four defensemen once when Vassil took a pass from Timmons at Center Ice, split the defense and fired a 15-footer past D'Entremont at 6:11.

This defeat may be what the Red and Gray need to get them "Up" for Saturday's game with league-leading Melrose at the Garden. This game may well decide the league championship.

STONEHAM — G. D'Entremont; rd. Sprott; id. Donovan; c. Warrnamaker; rw. H. Jackson; lw. O'Toole.

ARLINGTON — G. Morgan; rd. Higgins; id. Timmons; c. Vassil; rw. Coolidge; lw. O'Brien.

Stoneham alternates—McCarthy, W. Jackson, Barney, Bemis, Knight, Larson.

Arlington alternates. — Riemer, Cronin, Hesley, Noyes.

First Period — no scoring. No penalties.

Second Period — no scoring. No penalties.

Third Period — Stoneham, Barney (Warrnamaker) 1:42; Stoneham, Warrnamaker (unassisted) 4:42; Arlington, Vassil (Timmons) 6:10. No penalties.

Trinity Baptist Plans Annual Youth Week

A week full of varied activities has been planned by the young people of Trinity Baptist Church as they observe Youth Week with the theme "Christ Calls — Serve in Faith".

Paul Constantine has headed the Youth Week committee responsible for planning the excellent program. Serving on the committee are: Joan Williams, publicity; Barbara Prescho, visitations; Bob Hough, Sunday services; Priscilla Symington and Nancy Cox, banquet; Bruce Spaulding, Gordon Bretscher and Ed Clark.

On both Sunday mornings the young people will have charge of the services. Rev. Lewis Williamson will be their "guest speaker" for the first Sunday, Jan. 28, and Ed Clark the speaker for the second Sunday, Feb. 4. Those participating in these morning worship services are: Nancy Cox, Bruce Spaulding, Eleanor Prescho, Roger Spencer, Barbara Prescho, Arthur Clark, Priscilla Symington, Joan Williams, Bob Hough, Patricia Abbott, Priscilla Hoyt and Gordon Bretscher.

Sunday evening, Jan. 28 at 7.

Harry Patterson, vocational guidance director at Arlington High, will speak and lead a discussion on "Where Do We Go From Here" followed by a film on college life entitled "The Difference". The Junior High Fellowship will conduct the worship service.

Wednesday evening at 8:30, the young people will gather at the church social hall for a box lunch supper and an evening of visitation.

Friday evening at 8:30 comes the Youth banquet, a turkey dinner, a formal program, entertainment and games. Don Higgins will be master of ceremonies.

Presidents' Club Meets Here On Next Monday

The Seventh District Presidents' Club of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, will meet next Monday at the Congregational Church.

The seventh district director of the Federation and the Mother of the Year will be guests of honor. A trio, Mrs. Tyler Porter, flute; Mrs. Donald Williamson, cello; and Mrs. John Sloan, piano, all of Lexington, will entertain.

Mrs. Stanley R. Kingman will preside. Tea will be served.

Still a bargain
Doubled In Value — Low In Cost!

Take a look at your telephone bill. Is any part on the average many things you buy have more than doubled in price? ... but one telephone service.

Remember 1 lb at 29¢ a pound ... eggs at 35¢ a dozen? Remember coffee at 20¢ a pound? Today you get the same pound ... the same dozen ... and look at the cost!

But your telephone pound — dozen — however you want to measure it — has more than doubled — and the increased cost is but a few cents a day.

Here's a household necessity that actually gives you more — yet takes a much smaller percentage of your household budget than it did ten years ago. That's because living costs have gone up much more than your telephone service.

POLITICS AS USUAL

Rather than just wring their hands and make dire predictions that the people are going to be taxed and taxed some more, public office holders might well roll up their sleeves and try to do something to keep taxes within reason.

It's the simplest thing in the world to shout that taxes are going to rise to a new high mark. To point the way which will reduce taxes, on the other hand, requires effort and courage. A noteworthy example of a positive approach to the problem of reducing cost of government is the work of the Hoover Commission.

The main reason for the public's apathy towards the defense program, which should be our first consideration, is that the majority of those in office—Democrats and Republicans alike—are still playing politics. Instead of demanding that peacetime services be reduced, the politicians are spending much of their time on measures that will expand services and provide public improvements which we cannot afford.

Common sense dictates that our main problem is to equip our young men in the armed forces everywhere with the best and to provide adequate means of defense at home. If the cost of such a program is likely to be back-breaking, isn't it reasonable to demand that we put off improvements that can wait and that we cut public services to a minimum until such time as the war crisis has eased?

There is a crying need for aggressive, fearless and honest leadership which commands respect and inspires a willingness on the part of everyone to make sacrifices in the present crisis.

With curtailment of building, wage and price freezes and increased taxation, there is need for greater co-ordination and for cutting down on unessential expenditures.

Parmenter PTA

The executive board of the Parmenter Parent Teacher Association met at the home of Mrs. Robert E. Donovan, vice-president, on Monday evening.

Plans for the panel discussion meeting to be held Feb. 5 were considered. Several members of the board made plans to attend the panel discussion in Stoneham where permission has been asked to borrow the Parmenter theme "How Much Education Does Your Tax Dollar Buy?"

Kenneth Cameron, Parmenter principal, will be a member of the Stoneham panel. Mrs. Peter Gray poured at the coffee hour, which followed adjournment of the board meeting by the president, Mrs. Von M. Weston.

"FUN WITH FLOWERS"

The Comet Club of Calvary Methodist Church is introducing a local florist in an entertaining and diversified program: "Fun With Flowers," in the vestry next Tuesday evening at 7:45.

Chairman of the affair is Miss Ruth G. Philpott. Tickets are in charge of Miss Gladys MacPhail and refreshments, Mrs. Robert Chandler, Jr.

Comet Club News

A covered dish supper was enjoyed by members of the Comet Club of Calvary Methodist Church, in the vestry, Tuesday evening, Jan. 16.

The delicious meal was planned and served under the direction of Mrs. Norman Walkinshaw, with Mrs. Richard Davis and Mrs. Robert Finlayson as hostesses. The business meeting was presided over by Miss Alma Herum. Mrs. Everett Watt presented devotions.

The Club is serving the annual meeting supper at the church in April, under the direction of Mrs. Raymond Udall and Mrs. Peter Boudreau.

Tower Mothers' Club

The Tower Mothers' Club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Rolf Martens, 60 Fountain road.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Kenneth Spengler gave interesting reviews of recent books, including "Foxfire," "River's Party," a biography of Ernie Pyle, "Late Have I Found Thee," "High Valley" and "Little World of Don Camillo."

Refreshments were served by the co-hostesses, Mrs. Kenneth Meyer and Mrs. Edward Pickett.

Den Mothers Steal Show In Cub Pack 20 Minstrels

The commotion you may have heard from the general vicinity of the Heights Tower Friday evening came from the Brackett School auditorium. The occasion was the third annual minstrel show presented by Pack 20 Cub Scouts, assisted by their parents.

The auditorium fairly rocked as the entertainers presented lively songs, clever skits and one surprise after another, beginning with the boisterous entrance of the end men to the somewhat "stormy" skit presented by the Den Mothers just before the grand finale.

The mothers walked off with the honors and proved to be really good sports as they presented "A Live Den Meeting" during which they re-enacted some of the antics of their Cub. The mothers carried out the portrayal to a "T", with two of the cast putting on a friendly wrestling match for good measure. By that time, the skit, which had the audience in stitches, just about raised the roof. When it was all over, one of the Den Mothers stepped forward and appealed for volunteers to take over a lively group of Cub, such as just portrayed. The silence was "deafening."

The balance of the show was of excellent caliber. With Cubmaster Walker as master of ceremonies, things moved fast and smoothly. The end men, Jerry Grey, Bill Bogardus, Mort French and Al Rivenburg, kept things humming with a patter of jokes and tricks. The chorus consisted of boys from dens 11 and 12, Douglas Moxham, Harold Wilson, William Clarke, Bruce Benson, Kevin Callahan, David McElligott, William Storey, David Rivenburg, Roger French and Richard French.

The music was conducted by Mrs. Magurn and Mrs. French, with special musical arrangements by Mrs. French. To add to the excitement, Bill Storey appeared during the show and acted as heckler for the end men.

There were three father and son presentations. Dr. Richard W. Baker accompanied his son, Richard, and Tommy Alderson while they sang a duet. Bill Bogardus sang "The Three Trees" while his son, Bobby, was kept on the jump as he acted out the song. Mrs. Bogardus was at the piano to make it an all-family affair. Mr. Cutler and son, Steve, did an impersonation of Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy in another Father-Son skit.

A welcoming skit was written by Mrs. Heaps and presented by Warren Heaps and Joseph Saege. Donald Avery and Walter Dickson did a pantomime depicting a boy and his girl out for an auto ride.

Douglas Parker played three accordion solos. John Huffman did magic tricks, accompanied by Tom Freeman. Steven Weller gave a recitation. Stephen Hoffman played a flute solo and Harold Wilson gave a humorous recitation.

The boys in Den 2 sang western songs in costumes. Den 5 presented the song, "A Bicycle Built For Two," in a Gay Nineties routine, and "I Never See Maggie Alone" was interpreted by the boys in Den 5. Den 8 did a very clever pantomime of "The Thing," while Dens 11 and 12 sang and danced the "Hokey Pokey."

Philip Healy did a comic roller skating act, and Den 9 brought the house down with a "Casey Jones" number.

The show closed with a tamboourine routine by Mr. French and Mr. Rivenburg while the entire company sang "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

Credit is due everyone who had a part in whipping up an evening of wholesome fun.

Congregational Church To Mark Youth Week

The 15th annual Youth Week will be observed at the Park Avenue Congregational Church beginning next Sunday morning. High light of the week will be the 11 a.m. worship service on Sunday morning and the Vesper Service in the evening.

Both of these services will be conducted by the young people. Those participating in the morning include Kate Richmond, Marilyn Croft, Robert Cleveland, Stella Center, Barbara Burns, Jewel Arthur, Betty Center and Walter Martin. Miss Marilyn Barnhill will give the sermon.

At the 7 p.m. service Holy Communion will be served by the ministers, assisted by junior deacons and deaconesses. Participating will be Virginia Olson, Ann Morrison, Carolyn Secrest, Joan Kennedy, Nancy Hurd, Gordon Jones, Hartwell Fleming, Jr., Ruth Morton and Janet Smith.

Other activities during Youth Week include an ice skating party for the Forum on Friday evening, Jan. 26 and a roller skating party for the Fellowship on Saturday evening, Jan. 27.

The public is invited to attend these services, and all young people are invited to join the activities of the youth groups.

The NEWS OBSERVES

Speaking in Philadelphia this week, Dr. Daniel L. Marsh, president of Boston University, offered 10 commandments for preserving the American system of government. One of these was:

"Retire any politician who seeks to ride into office on hate, racial prejudice or religious bigotry."

All of which brings to mind that next Wednesday at 10:30 a.m., at the State House, a hearing will be held on a bill to revive the law providing for pre-primary conventions of both parties. This bill was filed by Representative Gabriel F. Piemonte who states: "I am alarmed as a good many others must be by the deliberate refusal of leaders of both major parties to encourage the election to State office of persons other than those from Boston and Cambridge and of Irish or Yankee extraction."

We do not doubt the sincerity of the sponsor of this bill. It is unfortunate that the matter should have to be brought up in this so-called enlightened age. Perhaps we're naive, but we never could see why a man's religion or ancestry should have any bearing on his fitness for public office in this country. But it does. (We've noticed it right here in Arlington), and human nature being what it is, we doubt that the condition will ever be changed.

When the assistant conductor and first flutist of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra placed his order several years ago for the "100th" flute turned out by Verne Q. Powell Flutes, Inc., little did he realize that the completion of the 100th of these fine instruments by Mr. Powell would stir so much attention. And, it wasn't done as a publicity stunt.

In honor of the occasion, Mr. Powell, who lives at 55 Claremont ave., Arlington Heights, invited all the men of his company who had any part in making this 100th flute, and their wives, to a dinner party at the Cafe Amalfi on Friday evening. Also present was Mrs. Powell, who, incidentally, has been married to Mr. Powell 50 years. The couple have celebrated their golden wedding anniversary recently. Hostess was their daughter, Mrs. Clyde Hodgdon, business manager of her father's business firm. Others present included Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Getchell of Wellesley, daughter and son-in-law of the Powells.

Mr. Powell's flutes are used in leading symphony and radio orchestras here and abroad; they are made with the most painstaking care to insure the very highest quality. Symphony players frequently visit the Powell shop on Huntington

For the convenience of the public, evening registration of voters will be held before the annual town election in March. The dates are advertised on the first page. Persons may register also any time during business hours at the town clerk's office, through Feb. 13, and be eligible to vote in March.

Permits issued by the building inspector during the past week totaled $185,000, the biggest item being for 21 garden-type apartments to be built at 1218-1234 Massachusetts ave. There is also a new flurry of activity among builders of single-family houses.

The Arlington High School Dramatic Club presents the hit, "Meet Me In St. Louis" at Robinson Town Hall Saturday evening. It's good entertainment for all the family. The cast includes Marjorie Robinson, Pat Abbott, Pat Cox, Paul Gerrard, Constance Foote, Ann Morrill, Charles Wright, Carol Hornbeck, Lorraine Kelly and Maria Moscardini.

Other coming events at the town hall include the Arlington Academy's Musical Concert on Feb. 21 and the Philharmonic's Spring Concert March 29.

MAY RETURN TO SERVICE

Charles T. King of 76 Magnolia st., has received notification of selection of recall to active duty in the Navy.

King is a member of Organized Surface Division 145 of the U. S. Naval Reserve in Boston. He was notified that he may expect to be ordered to report for a physical examination on or about March 13. The notification states "this is a preliminary notification of your selection and does not constitute recall to active duty."

—Joseph Brown, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Brown of 42 Richmond st., is at the Mt. Auburn Hospital where he underwent an appendectomy operation.

salaries and retirement allowances, some being amendments to the Town's Classification and Pay Plan, and reallocation of grades. Another article calls for a 5 percent increase in basic salaries and still another is the matter of adopting the so-called St. Paul special compensation plan to meet changes in the cost of living.

Another article seeks an appropriation for an increase in the compensation for the Selectmen. The usual articles for town department budgets, special committee reports, etc., are included in the warrant.

Action will be taken on the acceptance and construction of 13 unfinished streets.

In another article, the Town will be asked to purchase the land and buildings at the corner of Massachusetts ave., and Cleveland st., for a branch library.

Another article will call for an appropriation to defray the cost of demolishing the vacant building formerly used as an industrial arts school.

The School Committee will request money to remodel the Russell School and the Junior High Center building, the latter for the purpose of making room for administrative offices.

An additional appropriation for the construction of an addition to the Robbins Town Hall will also be requested.

Another article calls for a review of the town's precinct boundaries. Another for a committee to study central garaging of town vehicles.

Another will seek legislation to restrict the Concord turnpike for residential purposes.

The meeting will be asked to amend the Town's by-laws to use Robert's Rules of Order for town meetings rather than Cushing's Manual.

Another important article relates to the proposed Town Manager form of government.

... and how to tell a boy lobster from a girl lobster

Got down to the station a little late this morning and barely made the train. Didn't have time to buy a paper or even to get on my usual car. Made the last car with my coat all unbuttoned and flying in the wind and my hat in my hand. Bill, he's the brakeman on the 8:08 had waved up ahead, but the engineer had spotted me, and waited for me to climb aboard.

Wouldn't have been late if my car hadn't started acting up on the way to the station and kept coughing and sputtering. Glad I didn't have to drive into town.

Sat down with a big feeling of relief. I don't think there's anything more relaxing than settling down in a train after you've had to hurry to make it. Sort of turn all your worries over to the engineer and go to sleep, or get in a big argument about how to tell a boy lobster from a girl lobster, or just sit back and relax.

Funny how annoyed you get if a train's a couple of minutes late when you're on it but how you hope it's going to be late when you're behind schedule making it.

The Arlington Campfire Girls Leaders' Association met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Kelly, Mary st.

Mrs. Attilio Canzanelli presided. Plans were discussed for using craft time at meetings to carry out the national project, "Dolls To Foster Friendship." A committee, headed by Mrs. Wesley McSorley, was appointed to take charge of the Campfire booth at the "Scout-erall" on Feb. 3 at the Town Hall.

Mrs. Dawes F. Wolons was appointed chairman of the nominating committee. Miss Elaine McKenney, field worker, announced a Leadership Training Course to be given in Boston on Feb. 1, and explained that although there are two new Campfire groups, more leaders are needed to bring Campfire activities to the many girls on waiting lists.

Plans were made for a Grand Council Fire in May. Mrs. Frederick L. Corcoran, Jr., discussed plans for Day Camp next summer. Refreshments were served by the hosts.

Audience Enjoys Sunday Musicales

Nearly 300 music lovers attended the annual scholarship concert of the Arlington Philharmonic Society on Sunday afternoon at Junior High East.

A well balanced program of chamber music and songs, and piano selections by Leo Litvin delighted the appreciative audience. At the conclusion of the concert, Mrs. Leo Litvin was presented a lovely bouquet of flowers.

The program opened with Mendelssohn's Trio in D minor, played by Phyllis Spence, violin; Charlotte Davies, cello; and Richard Hough, piano.

This was followed by a group of songs by Pearl Layton, mezzo soprano, accompanied by Mr. Hough. Mr. Litvin played four compositions by Debussy, Chopin and Strauss, and followed with two encores.

Mozart's Quartette in C Major was presented by Phyllis Spence and Donald S. March, violinists; Clayton Hoyt, viola; and Charlotte Davies, cello, to round out the delightful afternoon.

A social hour followed with Mrs. Kenneth Barney, Mrs. J. Philip Bower and Mrs. Herbert Wallace pouring. Many of those in the audience took the opportunity to meet the artists.

—Ralph Labriola has applied to the Selectmen for a lodging house license at 385 Massachusetts ave., the property formerly occupied by Dr. Ezekiel Pratt.

First Full Year Of Personnel Board Proves Busy One

The year 1950 has been a busy one for the Town's Personnel Board, to say the least, the board's report for its first full year of operation indicates.

According to the annual report to the Selectmen, the Personnel Board has met 25 times during the past year. It has held regularly scheduled meetings twice a month at its office in the Robbins House. During the past year no less than 65 town employees or "employee groups" have met with the board for hearings on problems relating to their wages and grade status or other personnel matters. Over 100 requests for relocations, classifications or salary changes have been considered by the Board.

"The Personnel Board recognizes some need for salary adjustments, particularly in the administrative and supervisory levels," the report states. "Some inequalities were found to exist in the grade classifications. The Board is recommending certain changes in grade where the evidence and investigations justify such action."

The Board has established a complete file system containing records and data for all town employees, except school teachers. Job analyses have been made for all classified groups and positions. The secretary of the Board has had many conferences with Civil Service officials and town department heads to discuss personnel problems. Three studies, of overtime, vacation and sick leave practices have been inaugurated. A report with recommendations will be made at a future town meeting after these studies are completed.

A revised schedule of salary grades and salaries will be presented at the annual town meeting in March, the report states. The Board reports that many officials from other communities have come to Arlington to study the local Personnel set-up, many on the recommendation of personnel experts who have become acquainted with the Arlington Plan.

Arlington Woman's Club

The Arlington Woman's Club will meet this Thursday afternoon at 2 in the Town Hall.

Mrs. Constance A. Sporgborg will speak on "Our Part in Unesco." Mark Stimson, radio, church and concert singer, will be the tenor soloist.

The committee in charge of the art corner, Mrs. Frank Burns, Mrs. Kenneth Faulkner and Mrs. John Pezz will present Wedgewood.

Gold Star Mothers Hold Installation; Mrs. Rogers Guest

Officers of the American Gold Star Mothers were installed Thursday evening at D. A. V. Hall.

Mrs. Anna Highland was installed president for the second year. Congressman Edith Nourse Rogers, guest of honor, spoke on current problems and congratulated the Gold Star Mothers for their courage. Mrs. Highland presented Mrs. Rogers with a beautiful corsage. Other guests included officers of Arlington and Cambridge organizations and Mrs. Timothy J. Buckley, State president of the American Legion auxiliary.

Mrs. Highland received many beautiful gifts.

Miss Violet Mesmanian, 1077 Massachusetts Ave., will help with the over-all planning for the Boston Y.W.C.A. World's Fair to be given Feb. 3 at 140 Clarendon St.

Arlington High Pupils to Hear Talks on Career Opportunities

The Guidance Department of the School Department is presenting a series of career meetings. On Tuesday, Jan. 30, at 2 p.m., three speakers will discuss occupations and educational opportunities for high school graduates. The meetings are open to students and parents are also invited to attend.

Roland Darling of Northeastern University will present a broad survey about training requirements and opportunities in the Medical and Allied Fields, Agriculture and Biological Sciences, Architecture and Planning, Fine Arts, Language Arts, Social Sciences, Physical Sciences, Teaching and Law.

Mrs. Ruth Fernandez of Massachusetts General Hospital will provide information about nursing training in hospitals and in college; the essential characteristics for success in this field; the latest news about plans for Cadet Nurse Training; the kinds of positions in the field. Requirements for entrance to nursing schools will be explained.

Miss Helen Kroepsch, Employment Supervisor of John Hancock Life Insurance Company, will provide information of value to commercial, college or general course students.
